

Brittany Misner, VP of Business Development, Graduates from The Jo Ann Davidson Leadership Institute

Washington, D.C. 5/1/23 — Monte Christopher Holdings is proud to celebrate Brittany Misner, Vice President of Public Affairs, for her graduation from The Jo Ann Davidson Ohio Leadership Institute.

Brittany dedicated eight months to the leadership program, which provides professional development for women aspiring to become leaders in public and community service. Extensive studies are offered in local, state, and federal governments, as well as public policy, public speaking, politics and the organization of political parties. This month Brittany graduated from the prestigious institute at a ceremony in Washington, D.C.

“These outstanding women leaders are dedicated to applying their experience and skills to community and public service. It is inspiring to watch their growth and commitment to a better future for our state and our communities.” ~ Betty D. Montgomery, Chair of the Board for The Jo Ann Davidson Ohio Leadership Institute

Since its first class in 2001, nearly 500 Ohio women from 72 counties have completed the leadership course.

Monte Christopher is proud of Brittany’s commitment to professional development and her leadership role within the company. We are so lucky to have her! To learn more about Monte Christopher Holdings and our families of companies, visit MonteChristopher.com.
